MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director for Intelligence
SUBJECT : Summary of IAS Workload -- December 1972

1. This report summarizes the current work of the Imagery Analysis Service. At the end of December the Service had [] personnel. This included [] imagery analysts, [] graphic illustrators and one intelligence assistant contributing directly to imagery analysis and reporting. [] personnel performed management and support functions. Not included is the time of [] imagery analysts on PCS assignment to DDP, [] on one-year tours to CIA production offices, [] on special assignment to the ODI Planning Staff, [] in training at senior schools.

2. Our workload is described in the attached four tables. Table 1 compares the time expended by all personnel in December with similar data for the preceding five months. It also compares the workload on hand for the next three months, on imagery analysis and reporting only, with similar data for the preceding five months. Tables 2-4 show time expended and workload on hand for imagery analysis and reporting only according to geographic area, subject, and requester respectively.

3. New imagery received by IAS during December included [] on which IAS expended [] man-hours for assessment and assimilation. We also received 125 aircraft missions -- 13 SR.71, 5 U-2, 46 drone and 61 tactical reconnaissance.

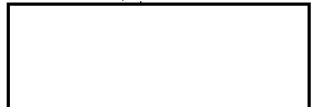

4. The total time expended in December was down considerably because of holidays and fewer people on board.
